

HERE EVERYONE IS AN OLD FRIEND

2009 Minnesota Holstein Field Day Host

come out. He likes to breed reflecting the old ABC Reflection Sovereign lines and old Rag Apple lines. Using older bulls can help correct some current flaws so Kenn is using bulls like Outside, Talent, Triple Threat, Regal Red, Tempo and Elevation to name a few.

Along with the bulls we talked about, we chatted over some of Kenn's favorite cows and cow families. Kenn's favorite cow of all time is Crisdhome Supreme Aaltje because she was their Kenn states that the breed still has good quality cattle, they are keeping good records and that the Holstein Association is still moving forward and not backwards. Other activities that Kenn is involved with are sitting on the Sibley County Holstein Association Board of Directors, and helping out with local 4-H and FFA members with dairy related projects. He says that he enjoys working with youth organizations because they are what tomorrow's future is going to look like.

Also, when asked what the most rewarding thing for Kenn is he stated, "Watching a junior member show and win and you can see on their face how much it means to them."

WHY FIELD DAY?

One of the main reasons that Elginvue offered to first produce of dam winner and the first 4E cow to produce an All-American. The favorite cow family was that of the St. Croix Pioneer Besslyn line. Kenn says that these were some of the best young cows that he ever had in his barn.

host field day was because of the central location. One of the goals that Kenn has set for field day in July is to develop new friendships with other Holstein breeders and to rekindle some old ones.

ENJOYING HOLSTEINS

Kenn has many different endeavours in his life, but the one that holds true is his love for the Holstein breed. When asked what he enjoys most about the Holstein Association, Elginvue Farms would like to extend a warm welcome to Holstein breeders to come to the Minnesota Holstein Field Day on July 15, 2009 in Arlington, Minn., to see old friends and make some new ones.
